LOOK AT COPS DRAGGING @DocMellyMel OUT OF THE MAYORAL DEBATE.
This is the city of Los Angeles version of "public safety." There was no disruption and four cops picked up Melina and pulled her out. All of this for a mayoral debate.
Dr. Melina is A PROFESSOR at the school!!!

Protestors in LA use bravery, numbers, and the environment to perform dearrest. Police often rely on force projection and fear to control the populace in general and crowds. Often able to control situations with a 10 to 1 disadvantage because of people's fear of getting hurt or arrested themselves but in situations like protests where deadly force is less likely taking on the police with numerical advantage can be quite effective. One person resisting may not work, two might not be enough to sway the crowd, but if three or more go in the affect of the crowd often changes from viewers to participants and then utilizing whatever methods available cops can routed and their comrades can released. One protester here even using a scooter as to create space and intimidating the officers improvising an effective mental and physical weapon.

Additional Comments:	On Telegram, a user shared a video taken during a protest last week in Los Angeles. The user focused on images which show how one of the protesters used a scooter "to create space and intimidating officers." He emphasizes the de-arrest techniques that can be used during protests. In another post the user shares and image which says, "never put a bloc where you can put a scooter and never put a scooter where you can put a rock." The use of "bloc" in this post refers to a protestor, further implying the use of barriers between protestors and police.

[redacted] Hey y'all! We are meeting up at the federal building in LA Sunday at 11 AM! Let's talk about it!!
thank you to some of the big accounts that have been putting it in their stories! [redacted] Israeli soldiers are becoming more aggressive and abusive as every year passes by and the US funds(3 billion of tax dollars a year) & just watches Palestine.
The assassination of this Palestinian American world renowned journalist was sad enough, but the mutilation and disrespect of her funeral by Israel the soldiers was a totally other level. When you start messing with the process of releasing the deceased and disturbing their transition to becoming an ancestor, this level of disrespect is some thing I couldn't even stomach.
last year I saw the biggest protests and conversation for Palestine that this country has ever seen when there was major attacks from Israel and thousands of Palestinians died. Let's keep that energy going because as long as I've lived in this country, 90% of the people in my age range were just completely clueless. The idea that people were finally learning and caring was new and shocking! While americthere's a long way to go though!!
